Colossians: An Ancient-Future Letter for Today's Christian and Culture

June 9-12, 2010

June 9 - 10 (6:30 - 9:45pm)

June 11-12 (8:30am - 4:00pm)

This course will be offered on Wed. & Thurs. night (6:30 - 9:45pm) and all day Friday and Saturday (8:30am - 4:00pm). You may enroll for graduate credit or for audit.

What does it look like to live a faithful and fruitful life as a Christian in today's postmodern culture? How can Christians deal with the challenges of syncretism and legalism in the church as well as a culture that largely values pluralism and popular philosophy and spirituality? Come explore these questions as we probe its ancient-future message, section-by-section, and do Christian theology in context for mission, spiritual formation, and cultural engagement with practical applications.

Section 1:

Intro to Colossians: Context Then, Christians Now.

Section 2:

Colossians 1: Christ is Supreme! Mission and Theology

Section 3:

Colossians 2: Complete in Christ: Syncretism and Legalism

Section 4:

Colossians 3: Centered in Christ: Spiritual Formation and Family

Section 5:

Colossians 4: Case Studies: Witness and Community
